Brainstorm & Idea Prioritization :

Brainstorming provides a free and open environment that encourages everyone within a team to participate in the creative thinking process that leads to problem solving. Prioritizing volume over value, out-of-the-box ideas are welcome and built upon, and all participants are encouraged to collaborate, helping each other develop a rich amount of creative solutions

Before you collaborate

A little bit of preparation goes a long way with this session. Here's what you need to do to get going.

🕒 10 minutes

Team gathering

Define who should participate in the session and send an invite. Share relevant information or pre-work ahead.

Set the goal

Think about the problem you'll be focusing on solving in the brainstorming session.

Learn how to use the facilitation tools

Define your problem statement

What problem are you trying to solve? Frame your problem as a How Might We statement. This will be the focus of your brainstorm.

🕒 5 minutes

PROBLEM

Phishing is a type of fraud in which the perpetrator sends emails or uses other communication channels to pose as a trustworthy entity or person in an effort to get sensitive information, such as login passwords or account information, in order to detect this kind of fraud activity we need a solution

Key rules of brainstorming

To run a smooth and productive session

Stay in topic.

Encourage wild ideas.

Defer judgment.

Listen to others.

Go for volume.

If possible, be visual.

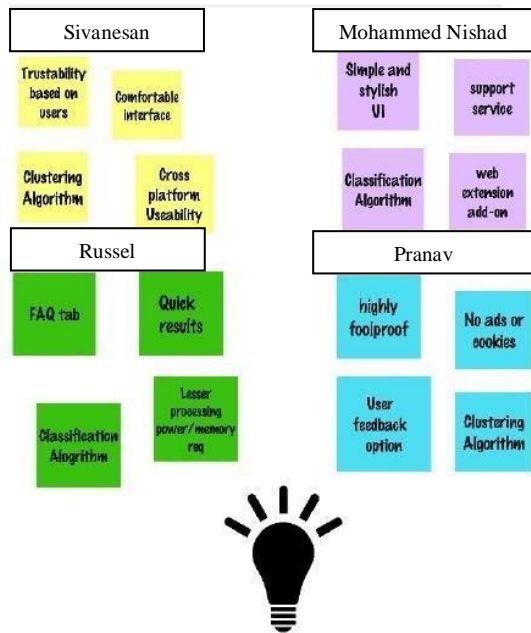

2

Brainstorm

Write down any ideas that come to mind that address your problem statement.

10 minutes

Tip: You can submit sticky notes and fix the exact color of sticky notes for brainstorming.

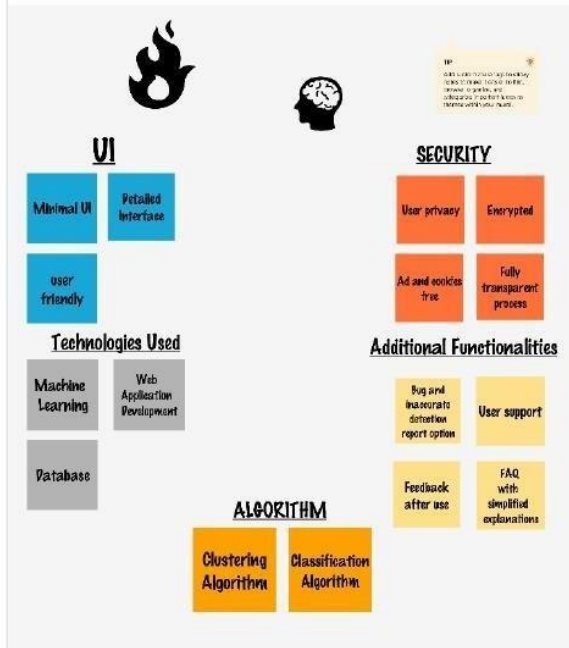

3

Group ideas

Take turns sharing your ideas while clustering similar or related notes as you go. In the last 10 minutes, give each cluster a sentence like label. If a cluster is larger than six sticky notes, try and see if you can break it up into smaller sub-groups.
